Dear <NAME>,

As International Women's Day approaches (Friday, 8 March 2024), I am this year championing Dress for Success, an organisation that empowers women to achieve economic independence by providing professional attire, a network of support, and career development tools to women in need. This IWD I am getting behind their Empower Hour campaign, to support more vulnerable women across Australia into employment.

By investing in women together we are not only improving the lives of individuals, but also strengthening our communities and building a better future for us all. I would love it if you would support Dress for Success and the important work they do, so we can have an even greater impact.

This year I am asking you to donate to empower a woman to change her future. Help me reach my goal of $<GOAL> by donating to my fundraising page at <UNIQUE URL>.

By supporting Dress for Success, you and I can both make a real difference in the lives of vulnerable Australian women and help them achieve their goals. Together, let's support this important cause and celebrate the achievements of women on International Women's Day.

Thank you,

Dear <NAME>,

Next week is International Women's Day, and this year I am championing Dress for Success's grassroots Empower Hour campaign to support more women into employment across Australia.

Every year, Australian Dress for Success Affiliates support more than 5,000 women to enter or re-enter the workforce across the country. And with our support, they will continue to make sure even more women are provided with the professional attire, a network of support, and career development tools they need to find employment and financial independence.

Together, we can create greater impact. So please help me smash my goal of $<GOAL> by donating to my fundraiser at <UNIQUE URL>. The more generous we are, the more impact we can have on transforming women's lives!

By supporting Dress for Success, we can make a real difference in the lives of vulnerable Australian women and help them achieve their goals. Together, let's support this important cause and celebrate the achievements of women on International Women's Day.
